

Presenting the 3rd Annual
Alabama Kentucky Rifle Show
To be held at the
Joe Wheeler State Park Lodge
Located in Rogersville, Alabama

www.alapark.com for reservations or call 256-247-5461

On January 10th thru 12th 2019

The lodge has blocked out rooms for us at $64 a night plus tax and must be reserved 30 days prior to the show. These rooms overlook the Tennessee River and are very comfortable. The lodge has a restaurant that is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. This is a beautiful venue and the facilities are well suited for our needs. There is a loading dock just off the showroom for easy offloading, but no ramp. There is an elevator off the main lobby that can be used to get to the showroom. If the lodge is booked up, the Economy Inn, Highway 72, Rogersville AL, 1-844-663-2269 is located just outside the entrance to Joe Wheeler Park.

Guest Speaker

Mel Hankla

Mel Hankla is a historian who has dedicated much of his life to our early American history and fortunately for us to the art and history of the Kentucky rifle. I am very pleased to announce that Mel will be giving a presentation on the Rifleman of the Cumberland. If you have never heard Mel's presentation on this subject, you will thoroughly enjoy it. On top of that, Mel will have on display some of the finest southern rifles that played a very historic part of building this great nation.

Show Hours

We will be able to unload into the showroom on Thursday after 11 AM

Show hours will be 12 PM on Thursday to 10PM, 8 AM to 10PM on Friday and 8 AM until 2 PM on Saturday

Door Prize for a table holder: A Hand-Crafted Custom Powder Horn by Ron Hess.

Each table holder will be given one chance on the Powder Horn with each table purchase. Additional chances for the table holders will be available at the registration desk for $10.00. The drawing for the Powder Horn will be a 1:00 PM on Saturday. You do not have to be present to win.

I am going to craft another Tomahawk that will also be raffled off, chances will be $10.00 each

Chances for the Tomahawk will be available to table holders and the general public that attends the show.

A ticket for the tomahawk will be Drawn out of the pot and Awarded to one lucky winner at 1:00 pm.

On Saturday the 12th

Admission for non-table holders will be $10 adults – children 16 and under are free

SHOW RULES:

This show is intended to showcase the Kentucky Rifle and its American heritage.

Other items can be displayed as long as they relate to the time frame of the Kentucky Rifle.

Modern or cartridge guns will not be permitted.

Security

Security will be provided by the Park Rangers after show hours, 10 PM to 7 AM, Thursday and Friday

The showroom will be locked at 10 PM on Thursday and Friday

STRICKLY FOR THE LADIES ONLY
NO MEN ALLOWED
This will be the second year for the “HEN HOUSE”

It was brought to my attention that we have some ladies that would like to display their crafts and have a special area to display them. I have arranged to have a couple of tables that will be set up outside the show room by the registration desk. There will be no charge for this at this time.

I would love to see this grow and become a part of our fantastic event.

Ladies, come prepared to display your handy work and enjoy your own area where you and the other ladies can share ideas.

Ladies, the only thing that I ask is that your items are handmade by you.

Thank you, Jim and Celeste Parker

The ladies had a great time last year and I think that they had a very good response in sales for their hand made items. We are looking for an even bigger turnout this year. So, ladies bring your handmade items and take part in an exciting part of this great show.
